Icey roads blamed for accidents

Fog and slippery roads, brought about by freezing rain and snow showers, have caused many traffic accidents in the area.

An unidentified woman ended up putting her car in a ditch after she ignored warnings from Antioch Police Officer James Blackwood as he was directing one-lane traffic around a two-car collision at 7:24 a.m., on Thursday, March 22.

According to that accident report, Karen Krautwurst, 20, Mundelein, was southbound on Rte. 59 when she began to slide and lost control of her car, crossed the center line and struck an automobile in the northbound lane driven by James Mazer, 56, Lindenhurst.

There were no traffic citations issued at the scene. The Antioch Rescue Squad took a passenger in the Mazer car, Donna Decklau, 45, Spring Grove, for medical treatment of a possible back injury.

Crowd stalls routine rezoning

What may have been a quiet routine hearing on a zoning change from residential to commercial recreational for five acres of the 25 acres at Old Port Cove, on Bluff Lake and Elime Rds., in Antioch Township, is blossoming into a real controversy.

Almost 100 people, mostly residents of the area surrounding the marina-resort, showed up at the hearing at the Antioch Township Hall protesting that rezoning. The surrounding residents stated that they are afraid that, if the trailer park area was rezoned, it could create a possibility that expansion could take place until that trailer park met a trailer park that now exists approximately 15 acres away from the Port Cove one.

Owner Martin De Foor said that he is asking for the rezoning simply to correct an oversight when he discovered that part of his resort's property was not zoned like the rest, commercial residential, denying any future plans.

A substantial increase in traffic is also expected by area residents if the park is rezoned.

The Lake County Zoning Board of Appeals, the agency holding the hearing on March 14, failed to pass the rezoning, although the meeting went on for three and one-half hours.

The hearing has been continued to 1:30 p.m., on Wednesday, April 11, at the township hall.

Palaske murder trial set to go on April 9

Air Force Sgt. Larry Beach, 22, Jerseyville, Ill., will face trial, charged with the first degree murder of Airman David Palaske, 20, Antioch, on Monday, April 9.

Beach's jury trial will take place in the Otero County Courts, in Alamogordo, N. M. He will be prosecuted by Steven Sanders, 12th Judicial Dist. district attorney.

Beach has been held in the Otero County Jail, without bond, since the murder in October.

Both airmen were stationed at Holloman

Air Force Base, next to the U. S. Army's White Sands Missile Base, when the crime occurred.

After an anonymous call received by the Otero County Sheriff's Dept. that a murder had been committed in the Dog Canyon area, and a fruitless search of that area, passersby found Palaske's body in Oliver Lee State Park, 10 miles from Alamogordo.

Reports are that Palaske and Beach had been friends and had been together at a local bar shortly before Palaske was shot to death.

Fields, Popp victors in county board race

A total of 634 Democrats and 2,069 Republicans went to the polls in Antioch Township in the March 20 Primary Election.

Democrats in Antioch Township voted for Gary Hart for President and Paul Simon for U.S. Senate while Republicans elected Charles Percy over Tom Corcoran for U.S. Senate by a margin of 1,130 to 861.

Antioch also carried Barbara Richardson in her Republican race for coroner, which she also won countywide. In Antioch Township the margin was 1,193 to 651 for Richardson.

County Board district four and Antioch Township also nominated Jim Fields and Fred Popp as the Republican candidates for county board in November's general election.

Totals district-wide were Fields, 3,985; Popp, 3,512; Joe Tobolik, 3,163; and Janet Kapischke, 2,477. Don Mason had 2,288 votes running unopposed in district four in the Democratic primary.

In the Republican Circuit Judge race, Charles Scott easily defeated William Homer.

Several races developed in Antioch Township committee races. On the Democratic ballot in precinct two, Jerry Haley surprisedly got two write-in votes in opposition to Denis Hartman's 19.

Haley did win the committeeman race on the Republican ballot in precinct two with 42 votes despite the fact he wasn't on the ballot.

Both propose bills

Wisconsin, Illinois step-up DUI fight

by GLORIA DAVIS

The border-hopping, drinking-driving controversy, that has been a problem in both Illinois and Wisconsin since Illinois raised its drinking age to 21 in 1980, may be closer to a solution.

The Wisconsin State Senate passed a bill on Tuesday, March 20, legislating that people from other states must adhere to the legal drinking age in the state of their residence when drinking in Wisconsin bars.

Out-of-state students living in Wisconsin and military personnel based in Wisconsin are exempt from this law and may abide by Wisconsin's legal drinking age of 18, 19 in July.

State Sen. John Maurer (D-Kenosha), who has been working on the border-hopping problem for a long time, along with State Sen. Tim Cullen (D-Janesville), State Sen. Richard Krueger (R-Platteville) are the bill's cosponsors.

Maurer said that he was glad they were over the first hurdle. The bill is expected to be on the floor of the Wisconsin House of Representatives with a vote taken on it before the current session is over in the middle of April.

According to Maurer chances of passage in the house are good ones.

The next step, if the house passes it, is for Governor Anthony Earl to sign the bill into law.

This is also expected because Earl had publicly stated that he was in favor of such a bill.

So it is possible that those in favor of the reciprocity law may see it enforced this summer along with the raised 19-year-old drinking age.

Meanwhile, on the other side of the border in Illinois, where reportedly drunk-driving penalties are lighter than they are in Wisconsin, Illinois State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis (R-Zion) is trying to do something about that in the face of rough sledding being provided by legislators from both parties.

DUI arrests in some Wisconsin border areas have tripled since 1981.

Geo-Karis' bill doubles the penalty for those found guilty of driving under the influence of either alcohol or drugs in Illinois.

Despite the opposition, some of it coming from the director of the department of corrections who claims not to have the room to keep drunk drivers for a longer stay, her bill is in the Judiciary 2 subcommittee on criminal law.

The first hearing on Senate Bill 422, also sponsored by State Sen. Virginia Madonald (R-Arlington Heights), State Sen. Clarence Darrow (D-Rock Island), State Sen. LeRoy Lemke (D-Chicago), and State Sen. Margaret Smith (D-Chicago), will be held at 10 a.m., on Friday, April 6, in Room 1A, of the Stratton Building in Springfield.

Geo-Karis said, "At the present time a person who kills someone while driving under the influence of alcohol or drugs is charged with a class four felony. It should be changed to a class two felony and convicted drunken drivers should serve from three to seven years in prison."

Teens face 3 charges

Two accused of murdering Mark Meyer set for trial

The accused murders of Mark Meyer, 25, formerly of Antioch, are expected to face trial in a Polk County, Fla. court, sometime in April.

According to the Polk County State Attorney's office, Quintin Stacey Allen, 19, will have a pre-trial hearing on Tuesday, March 27.

He is expected to face jury trial on charges of first degree murder, kidnapping, burglary and robbery, on April 9.

Kenneth Palmer, 18, is set for his pre-trial hearing on the same charges later in April.

Chief State's Atty. Hardy Pickard will prosecute both cases.

The two are charged with kidnapping Meyer, in Winter Haven, Fla., in November, robbing him, tying him to a tree in a pasture and stabbing him to death. Both men are also charged with later burglarizing the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer.

Meyer was formerly superintendent of Antioch Grade School Dist. 34, until he and his wife retired to Florida. Mark had recently joined his parents.

Even before his first birthday, a child benefits from being read to and told simple stories. Vital for language development, it also gives the toddler the enjoyment of undivided attention from another member of the family.

When I think about it

Taxes like weather, out of our control

by GLORIA DAVIS

Da-ta-da-da! This is your country, the United States of America, population 250 million people and a tax for every one of them.

Not to be depressing to the tune of "Dragnet," but that infamous date in history, April 15, is about to strike again.

Look at it this way, it won't be so bad. By this time you should have come out of the shock that the tax amount on your W-2 form put you into a couple of months ago.

Stop putting-off that visit to your tax man. How bad can it be? Think of the only alternatives to paying taxes, jail or death.

Either choice would sure play havoc with your golf game.

If you're one of the smart ones that bought and IRA and got that extra deduction, revel in the satisfaction of legally doing Uncle Sam out of that little bit, while also making a smart investment.

But don't go too far with those smarts. No, you can't declare the squirrel family that is living in your attic as dependents even though all those nuts they've stored in your eaves, and are thriving upon, came from your very own hazelnut tree.

The sooner you relegate to the fact that paying taxes is like going to the dentist, a distasteful must, your life can go on, probably minus most of the fun times, but on it will go.

Why not look at tax paying like some of those much wiser than we.

Will Rogers said, "The income tax has made more liars out of the American people than golf has. Even when you make a tax form out on the level, you don't know when your through if you are a crook or a martyr."

Herbert Hoover said, "Blessed are the young, for they shall inherit the national debt."

William Feather said, "The reward of energy, enterprise and thrift is taxes."

And that great American, Werner von Braun said, "There is just one thing I can promise you about the outer space program: Your tax dollar will go farther."

Peg Bracken once asked, "Why does a slight tax cost you $200 and a substantial cut save you 30 cents?"

Jeff Hayes had another name for income taxes, capital punishment.

Bernard Berenson predicted that governments last as long as the under-taxed can defend themselves from the over-taxed.

Dan Bennet warned that, with taxes going up as fast as they are, "the government is likely to price itself out of the market."

But one of the wisest of all, Lord Thomas Duwar said, "The only thing that hurts more than paying an income tax is not having to pay an income tax."

Along the way

with ANNIE MAE

For any of you that are interested in tracing your family tree, why not go to the next meeting of the Lake County Genealogical Society, at 7:30 p.m., on Tuesday, April 10, at the Cook Memorial Library in Libertyville.

A belated happy anniversary to Marilyn and Joe Sterbenz and Happy Birthday to one of Antioch's April Fools, Bob Wilton, who claims he will be out of town to duck celebrating that half-way mark on April 1.

The Fifth Dist. of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, VFW Commander Eugene Lewandowski, extends a grateful "thank you" to all those who participated in the district's first flea market. The Antioch VFW Post and its Auxiliary get a special thanks for their help and the use of their post home.

Congrats to Army Pvt. Robert J. Rentner, son of Nancy L. and Kenneth H. Rentner, Antioch, who has completed a cryptographic equipment repair course at the U. S. Army Signal School, Fort Gordon, Ga..

Another Antioch young man to be proud of is Raymon Scarpelli, who was named to the dean's list at Northwood Inst., Midland, Mich. for the winter semester.

Clark takes first in Cribbage tournament

Jeffrey D. Clark of Antioch, was the winner of the 1984 (Fifth Annual) Western New York "Open" Cribbage Tournament. He emerged from a field of 68 contestants at the Regency Motor Inn, Saturday and Sunday March 17 and 18.

Clark is a Cribbage advocate, participating in Cribbage tournaments in the midwest.

The tournament also hosted the American Cribbage Congress' Midwinter board of directors meeting, which also sanctioned the tournament. Congress President Joseph Petrus Wergin of Madison, and Secretary Robert Madsen of Niles, and 14 other directors also competed in the tournament play.

Tournament Director E. Hargesheimer, Jr. of Hamburg, N.Y., indicated that 13 states were represented at the two day marathon with over 1,250 different individual Cribbage games being played.

Clark lost only once during the two day elimination tournament and then only to the second place winner Frederick R. McGibney of Burlington, Vermont.

Third Place was taken by Harry Palmer of West Springfield, Mass. Fourth, fifth and sixth places were taken by Western New Yorkers, Paul Eichler of North Tonawanda, Samuel M. Joseph of Cheektowaga, and Robert M. Corp of Grand Island.

1983's "Open" Champion Donald Heider of Tonawanda, N.Y. placed 12th, with Chris Troy, age 15, also from Tonawanda, placed 13th along with Geraldine M. Wurtz of Lancaster, N.Y.

Top winners of all sanctioned tournaments are awarded Cribbage master points for lifetime tournament play.

The Regency Motel of Milestrip Rd., in Hamburg, sponsored the tournament along with the U.S. Playing Card Company of Cincinnati, Ohio. Champion Clark played 40 games against eight different opponents, whereas runner up McGibney played 55 games against 11 different players only to lose the second time to Clark in the double elimination play.

The tournament directors of the Western New York Cribbage Club believe the fifth annual event will spark considerable local interest in the "gentlemanly" game of Cribbage. Plans are already being made for the sixth annual WNY "Open" Tournament, the third weekend in March, 1985.

FIRST TIME WINNER — Barb Rush, of B-J Rush Studio, Antioch, took first prize for direct color enhancement as first time entrant, and an honorable mention in free style restoration, at state professional convention, Decatur.

Council Strikes Down City's Pyramid Zoning

Park City Council approved on March 15 three amendments to zoning ordinances which had been tabled at the previous meeting.

However, the council held off approval of an amendment which would eliminate agricultural retail operations, such as nurseries, from operating in residential areas, when council members voiced concern about the effect the revised ordinance would have on an elderly resident.

According to neighbors, the resident, who is in his eighties, sells seasonal produce and flowers from his yard.

City Attorney Robert Lessman said that the man might be protected under a legal non-conforming use since the man was said to have been there since before the city was incorporated.

The council directed Lessman to review the statutes before the next meeting.

Approved were revisions which would eliminate crematories in residential areas, require a 25-foot setback for accessory structures such as garages or sheds and eliminate high-rise multi-family dwellings from residential areas, or "pyramid zoning."

"It is important that we get this pyramid zoning situation off the books," said

First Ward Alderman Robert Allen in urging the council to take action on the recommendations.

In other business, city engineer Gordon White of Don Manhard Associates, reported that a residents' request to extend sewer and water to his home near the intersection of Northwood and Greenleaf Aves. would cost approximately $32,000 to install.

However, the engineer said that funds could be recovered if the city installed the lines and charged a fee per foot of frontage at the time of connection or make other special assessments.

White said that he thought it would be prohibitive to install the lines, "under the current cash balances." However, he said that there is potential for future developers to pay for the service.

Upon Mayor Julian Guerrero's recommendation, the council voted to order the city attorney and engineer to investigate ways that landowners would return the cost of the improvement to the city.

In other matters, at the request of the Parks and Recreation Board Chairman Sherrill Tripp, the council allowed fee exemptions for the use of the Community Center for the Park City Community Watch Program for five of its meetings. Also, the Lioness Club will be exempted from paying a fee when it sponsors its April 14 blood drive through the Jacob Blumberg Blood Bank.

Police Committee Chairman Robert Allen announced that the first meeting of the committee will be held on April 5 at 6:30 p.m. preceding the regular council meeting at 7 p.m.

An abandoned vehicle was ruled liable for a $500 per day fine according to the city attorney. Joe Bobrick of Wildwood has been reported to have left his 40-foot semi-trailer truck on a friend's property in the Greenleaf Creek subdivision for four years.

Police Chief Michael Luff said he would inform the owner of the zoning violation and the penalties he could incur.

The first opera was Dafne, with libretto by Ottavio Rinuccini and music by Jacopo Peri. It was originally performed at the Palazzo Corsi in Florence early in 1597, although the exact date is unknown.

CROOKED TEETH

Malocclusion (bad bite or crooked teeth) may be caused by:

- poor prenatal nutrition (the leading cause of tooth problems in children)
- premature loss of baby teeth, or keeping them too long
- chewing habits: lip sucking, moistening, or biting; tongue-thrusting, etc.
- thumb or finger-sucking
- poor nutrition during early tooth-forming years
- nursing and teething habits and devices
- sleeping and other posture habits
- tooth decay
- mouth injuries and
- heredity (plays a secondary but strong role in forming crooked teeth).

Each of these reasons can be offset by aware, concerned parents, and early preventive dental procedures.

Lowest funding coming

Upper grade could need all-new heating plant

"The present heating system at the Antioch Upper Grade School has a life expectancy of five years," said Supt. Don Skidmore, explaining why the District 34 Board of Education was involved in trying to decide whether to fix the present one or put in an entirely new one at the last regular meeting of the board.

Replacement would probably utilize gas-fired boilers for providing hot water instead of the present electric roof-top heating units.

Skidmore added that an overview study of the system was needed to find out why the present system was using "so much electricity for heating."

The board also discussed the problem presented because next year's scheduled spring vacation does not coincide with that scheduled by the high school.

"With many families having children of both ages this could prove to be an inconvenience for them," said Skidmore.

The board voted three to three to keep the schedule as is.

Board President Garnet Cook was not present to break the tie vote so the motion stands disapproved, but the matter is slated to come before the board again at next month's meeting.

The board also is looking into the possibilities of solving the long standing problem of mud in Oakland Grade School's driveway and parking lot.

The board approve spending $1,620 to have Testing Service Corp., Carol Stream, take bore samples down as far as 10 feet for the purpose of analyzing the soil conditions beneath the surface to find out if the soft soil conditions can be solved at a reasonable cost, so that a hard surface driveway and parking lot could be ultimately installed.

Also on the agenda was Dr. Skidmore's report on Gov. James Thompson's budget for 1984-85 which allocates the lowest amount for school funding in the last 10 years.

"It is a sad commentary for a wealthy state to treat its children so poorly," said Skidmore.

But more encouraging money matters were discussed as the board heard that the school district had applied for federal grants that could mean $63,000 to pay the salaries of two learning disabilities teachers, one speech therapist and one learning disabilities aide.

The school district would pay $3,000 of the cost of this program.

Members Honored In Coast Guard Auxiliary

Six area residents were honored by Waukegan Flotilla 3-5, U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, at the Flotilla's change of watch and awards banquet recently at the Waukegan Yacht Club.

Ken Martinez, of the Antioch-Fox Lake area, growth and retention officer, was named "Member of the Year" by a vote of the membership. Martinez also received a plaque for conducting the most vessel (safety) examinations during 1983.

Roger Laird, Waukegan, immediate past flotilla commander and current division captain, received the award for excellence in member training. The flotilla conducted seven specialty courses for members during the year.

Neal Serdar, Wadsworth, membership training officer, received the leadership and performance award.

Dick Barrie, Barrington, received the award for excellence in public education. During 1983 the flotilla conducted 14 classes for the general public in boating safety and seamanship, sailing, and piloting and navigation at several locations throughout the area as well as numerous lectures on boating safety.

Peter Pulver, Crystal

Lake, vessel examination officer, won the 1983 award for operations. The flotilla conducts safety and rescue patrols on Lake Michigan from the Wisconsin state line south to Lake Forest-Highland Park and operates Waukegan Marine radio as well as assisting in patrolling the Chain of Lakes and operating Fox Lake radio.

Dorothy Warren, Long Grove, won the final award for general excellence in members' performance.

The U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary is the volunteer, civilian branch of the U.S. Coast Guard which promotes, teaches and practices boating safety.

Plan fish sale

Bluegill, Hybrid Sunfish, and Channel Catfish may be purchased from the Soil and Water Conservation District on May 5 at the Lake County fairgrounds.

Orders must be received by the district on or before April 25.

This is an excellent opportunity for people and groups that need large numbers of fish for their ponds or lakes to buy fingerlings in bulk.

BLUEGILL come in two sizes, 1 to 3 inches, and 4 to 6 inches. It is an extremely popular pan fish. Stocking rates are typically 750-1,000 fish per acre.

Hybrid Sunfish come in one size, 1 to 3 inches. It tends to grow faster than either its male Bluegill and female Green Sunfish parents, is more aggressive than either parent, and does not successfully reproduce, thereby reducing the chances of overpopulation.

The "catch-out" rate for Hybrid Sunfish is very high. Hybrid Sunfish should be stocked at a rate of 500 per acre if they are fed, and 250 per acre if they are not fed artificially.

This is excellent companion to the Channel Catfish if both are artificially fed.

CHANNEL Catfish are popular sport and food fish that do not "muddy" a pond as do Carp or Bullheads. They feed on a wide variety of food. Stocking rates are 100 per acre if the fingerlings are not fed and 250 per acre if they are artificially fed.

People may obtain an order form by calling (312) 223-1056. The form and a check should be mailed to the Soil and Water Conservation District, 33040 North Rte. 45, Suite 205, Grayslake, 60030. Further information can be obtained by calling (312) 223-1056.

Fish will be bagged with oxygen for safe transfer in car or truck. Buyers will pick up the fish at the Lake County fairground on Saturday, May 5.

A second sale of Largemouth Bass (one to three inches) and Hybrid Sunfish (three to five inches) will be held by the District in early June, depending on weather and fish feeding conditions.

GreatAmerica sponsors free bike clinics

Cyclists from 8 to 80 will have the opportunity to receive free first-hand information on bicycle racing, bicycle safety and have their bicycle safety checked at the GreatAmerican Federal Savings branch office in Antioch at 425 Lake St. from 10 to 11 a.m. on March 31.

The bicycle clinics are being sponsored by GreatAmerican Federal Savings to provide members of the community with accurate information on cycling.

"We feel that it's important for everyone to know the proper rules of the road for cycling safety and to learn something about the machine they're riding," said John L. Domier, chairman and president of GreatAmerican Federal Savings. "Bicycle racing has once again begun to interest the American public, and as interest grows so will the number of people wanting to participate," he said. "By sponsoring this series of clinics, the public will have the chance to talk with experienced cyclists, learn how to become a sanctioned rider and discover what it takes to become a champion."

Each clinic team will consist of an experienced cyclist, a member of the Secretary of State's Office on Cycling and a trained bicycle mechanic.

According to Domier, each hour-long clinic will provide enough information for even the novice cyclist to begin a training program and compete in the GreatAmerican 50 Bicycle Race on April 29.

Everyone attending the clinic will receive a free bicycle racing cap and literature on cycling.

GreatAmerican is sponsoring the GreatAmerican 50 Bicycle race on April 29, in Oak Park as part of its 50th Anniversary celebration.

The GreatAmerican 50 Bicycle Race will consist of ten races to be held, five for novice citizens and five United States Cycling Federation races. Racers will compete for $12,000 in awards and money.

Entry forms are available at all 26 GreatAmerican Federal savings branch offices or at local bicycle shops.

Clinics will be held at the following GreatAmerican Federal locations:

North-March 31, Antioch; 425 Lake St., 10-11 a.m.; Deerfield, Lake Cook Plaza, 499 Lake Cook Rd., 12:30-1:30 p.m.

Scouts take one, two at first aid meet

Antioch's Boy Scouts of America Troop 92 won first and second place honors at the Lakes District First Aid Meet, held at the Grant High School gymnasium on March 17.

According to veteran participants of this annual competition, it is the first time that both patrols of the same troop placed first and second.

The Troop 92 patrols competed in a field of 23 area patrols in the simulated treatment of real-life first aid problems.

The problems included simple arm fracture, compound leg fracture, drowning, impaled object, arm and hand burns, and burns caused by liquids. In each problem patrols were judged on such criteria as teamwork, accuracy of treatment, leadership, and problem report.

The first place Panther Patrol earned 593 of the 600 possible points and consisted of Patrol Leader Ron Rock, Mark Aschbacher, Jay Bruske, Dale Gade, Phil Hettich, and David Weston.

The second place Viking Patrol earned 588 points and consisted of Patrol Leader Matt Aschbacher, Brian Clark, Mike Cain, Matt Davidson, Bob Paschke, and Frank Zeien.

Accompanying the patrols to the first aid meet were Scoutmaster Bernie Dost, Committee Chairman Harold Clark, Assistant Scoutmaster Bill Goetzelman, and Eagle Scout Paul J. Hettich who served as a judge.

Troop 92 extends its heartfelt thanks to the Antioch Rescue Squad who volunteered three evenings to train scouts for the First Aid Meet and for the First Aid merit badge. Troop 92 is sponsored by the Antioch Moose Lodge.

In other winter activities, Troop 92 participated in the Annual Lakes District Klondike Derby at Camp Oakar near Rosecrans. In a field of 20 patrols, Troop 92's Panther Patrol won third place and the Viking Patrol won eighth place.

The Klondike Derby competition consisted of a series of activities that include fire building, sled racing, ice rescue, lashing, constellation identification, sled judging, and orienteering. Patrols were judged on teamwork, accuracy, and leadership. Senior Patrol Leader Mark Aschbacher received an award for being a judge.

Troop 92 performed cleanup service for the 1984 Chain O'Lakes Ice Derby and Winter Festival. In addition, Troop 92 constructed 11 wood duck nests for Chain O'Lakes State Park, bringing to a total of 21 nests that the troop has built for the park during the past four years.

On March 31, Troop 92 will join park Maintenance Director Ray Eisbrener and conduct their annual inspection of the nests as part of a state-wide longitudinal study of wood duck behavior. Webelos scouts have been invited to join in the study.

For a change of pace, Troop 92 traveled to Milwaukee on March 24 to attend the Milwaukee Sports Show.

Coming events for the troop include the annual campout near Hartford, Wis., on April 13-15, to set up tents for the Illinois Prairie Girl Scout Council and the annual US Grant Pilgrimage at Galena. Troop 92 continues its newspaper and aluminum can drive at the VFW trailer near the sawmill and thanks area residents for their support in this effort.

Crane hopes to name Religious Liberty Day

Illinois Congressman Philip M. Crane (R-Mt. Prospect) today introduced legislation designating August 27, 1984, as National Religious Liberty Day. The action came in the midst of the debate surrounding school prayer in public schools.

Crane noted it was on August 27, 1640, that one of the earliest of our Fathers of American liberty, Roger Williams, and the citizens of Providence, R.I., signed the Plantation Agreement, a solemn pact designed to "honor the liberty of conscience." The former history professor also reported that Williams stated, "God requireth not an uniformity of Religion," and held that all individuals and religious bodies—pagans, Jews, Catholics and Protestants—were entitled to religious liberty as a natural right.

The congressman reminded his colleagues that up until the 1960s the citizens of the United States were free to practice their faith in every place in this nation. However, he added, the Supreme Court in the early 1960s effectively banned prayer in public schools.

In introducing his legislation, Crane declared it is "only fitting that we recognize and commemorate the birth of religious freedom in America" by establishing a National Religious Liberty Day.

HIRAM BUTTRICK SAWMILL

OLD ANTIOCH SCHOOL

CHAIN O' LAKES SCENE

GreatAmerican offers etched views of area

GreatAmerican Federal Savings' branch office in Antioch has donated several thousand drawings of historical Antioch buildings and lake scenes to the Lakes Region Historical Society for use in its fund-raising program.

The three prints which were originally presented to city dignitaries at the Antioch branch opening last fall depict the Hiram Buttrick Saw Mill, the Old Antioch School House and a Chain O' Lakes scene.

Prints are on display at GreatAmerican, 425 Main St., Antioch.

"The three etchings so beautifully highlight the area we thought members of the community would like to have them in their homes. And knowing the historical society's need, we developed the idea for using the prints to raise money," said Branch Manager Ed Watts.

A set of three can be purchased at GreatAmerican Federal for $10.

Church opens in Antioch

A special get-acquainted Sunday school and worship services will mark the official opening of the newest church in Antioch, the Christian Life Fellowship (CLF), Assemblies of God, at 9 a.m. and 10 a.m., Sunday, April 1.

According to the Rev. Jeff Brussaly, pastor, the new congregation will meet at Christian Life Fellowship, 389 Lake St., in the center of Antioch.

Pastor Brussaly comes to Antioch from Buffalo Grove, where he was the assistant pastor of Calvary Community Church. He received his bachelor degree from Bethany Bible College in Santa Cruz, Calif., and his masters of divinity degree from Trinity Evangelical Divinity School in Deerfield, in June. He and his wife, Gwen, have no children at this point.

Pastor Brussaly relates that the life of Christian Life Fellowship will center around a deepening worship, a growing in Christian nurture and maturity, a sharing of one's faith, and a lot of church gatherings and fellowship, so that community life will flourish.

The church will begin in full swing with Sunday school, a nursery, and children's church for the young, a Sunday evening service at 6 p.m. and a mid-week service on Wednesday, at 7 p.m.

Christian Life Fellowship is one of 400 new churches being established in the Assemblies of God across the nation this year.

The 69-year-old denomination now has 10,173 churches in the U.S. with a total Sunday school enrollment of 1.4 million and a church membership of 1,119,686. Worldwide constituency of the Assemblies of God is 12.2 million. It is the largest church group in the modern Pentecostal movement.

Pastor Brussaly stated that CLF is a church to serve the needs of the community of Antioch. It is his desire that the church be concerned with the physical and material aspects, as well as the spiritual, of those people of this community.

Measle outbreak at Great Lakes

The Lake County Health Dept. reports there are three confirmed cases of measles in Lake County residents. The three identified cases have followed the measles outbreak at Great Lakes. The Health Department is working closely with Naval Personnel to control further spread to the population, and has alerted school nurses and hospital emergency rooms.

The type of measles occurring is "red" measles, "hard" measles, or "ten-day" measles. Symptoms of the disease are fever, cough, red eyes, runny nose and a red rash, usually starting on the face. The time between the exposure and the showing of symptoms is usually between 10 and 14 days. Individuals should call their physician if they show measles symptoms, and avoid exposing others to the disease.

Individuals most susceptible to measles are: persons born after 1956 with no history of disease or immunization; those who were under 12 months of age at the time of their measles immunization, those who received the immunization before 1968 and cannot document which kind; those who have received a killed vaccine; and those who have received a live vaccine with gamma globulin.

The Health Department is strongly encouraging measles immunizations for non-immunized children at 15 months of age or older. In addition, individuals exposed to measles should talk to their physician regarding appropriate protection.

If the family does not have a private physician, parents may obtain immunizations for their children at the Lake County Health Dept., which offers immunizations not only against measles, but also against mumps, rubella (German Measles), polio, diphtheria, whooping cough and tetanus (D.P.T.). No appointment is necessary at the following locations unless noted otherwise:

Antioch, St. Peter's Church Hall, 556 Lake St., 9 to 11:30 a.m., third Wednesday of the month.

QUESTION: "WITH THE WISCONSIN STATE SENATE APPROVING DRINKING RECIPROCITY AND CHANCES OF ITS PASSING THE HOUSE GOOD, WHAT DO YOU THINK?"

POLICE CHIEF CHARLES MILLER, Antioch, "I'm glad to see it and it will slow down our drinking driving problem but we're still going to have a big problem with drinking drivers from 21 to 25."

BONNIE WILSON, 19, "I think it's a good idea because I've known too many kids who have gone over the border to drink and gotten hurt or killed. I think the drinking age everywhere should be 21."

JEFF SUTTON, Antioch, "I've got a teenager and one 21 and I agree with it. They had to do something up there when they failed to raise the Wisconsin drinking age up to 21."

JEAN CRISP, Chicago, "I'm not sure I like Wisconsin passing legislation on Illinois residents that it couldn't enforce in its own state."

Accredit hospital

The laboratories at St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan and St. Therese Area Trauma Satellite in Lake Villa have been awarded a two-year accreditation by the Commission on Laboratory Accreditation of the College of American Pathologists (CAP), based on results of a recent on-site inspection.

John K. Duckworth, MD, FCAP, chairman of the commission, advised Karl Fox, MD, laboratory director and Diane Christianson, M.T. (ASCP), M.S., co-director of the satellite laboratory, of this national recognition and congratulated them and their staff on the "excellence of services you are providing patients and their physicians." The laboratories are two of 3,000 CAP-accredited laboratories nationwide.

The College of American Pathologists is a national medical specialty society of physicians certified by the American Board of Pathology.

The college's program, which began in the early 1960s, was the first peer-review program for clinical laboratory accreditation. Even before government agencies mandated it, pathologists voluntarily were inspecting and accrediting laboratories to maintain the highest quality laboratories possible.
